

Bylaws Documents – Please read this first!

The following documents are available for review and discussion at the Fall 2019 UFS Plenary:

1. Proposed Bylaws and Standing Rules 2019. This is the final version of the proposed new Bylaws and Standing Rules. This is the only document that you need to read, unless you want to compare the proposed Bylaws and Standing Rules with the previous Bylaws and Procedures.

2. Bylaws Guide. This guide provides an overview to the broad changes proposed in the Bylaws and Standing Rules and an explanation of the coding used in the next documents to show the differences between the old and new versions.

3. Proposed Bylaws 2019 with comments. This document includes comments to show comparisons with the previous Bylaws and Procedures, and color-coded text to indicate significant changes from or additions to the previous version.

4. Proposed Standing Rules 2019 with comments. This document includes comments to show comparisons with the previous Bylaws and Procedures, and color-coded text to indicate significant changes from or additions to the previous version.

5. Standing committee descriptions from the proposed Guidelines 2019. This will not be voted on by the UFS. There are brief descriptions of the Standing Committees in the Proposed Bylaws. This documents shows the more detailed descriptions that are proposed for inclusion in the Guidelines.

6. Bylaws and Procedures 2018 update with comments. This is the 2018 update to the 2013 Bylaws and Procedures. It includes all changes which have been approved by the UFS since the previous publication in 2013. It also includes comments to indicate comparisons with the proposed new Bylaws and Standing Rules.
